LOCAL MATTERS.

The Tax List.
Owing to the occurrence of an error in the Tax List, we are required to republish a portion of it. It is consoling to know that this time the mistake was not in the printer.

For Abusing His Wife.
A man named CHARLES SMITH, was arraigned before his Honor, Judge EVANS, on Saturday last, for assaulting and brutally abusing his wife. He was bound over for trial at the next term of court.

I. O. O. F.
Oregon Lodge, No. 54, I. O. O. F., will celebrate, by procession, the 20th of Sept., in commemoration of the presentation of the "Wilday Monument," at Baltimore. All Odd Fellows in good standing are fraternally invited to participate with us on that occasion.

An oration will be delivered on that occasion, to which the public are respectfully invited.

J. G. COTTRELL, N. G.
J. UTT, Secretary.

Dreadful Affair.
An affair occurred on Thursday, the 17th inst., in the eastern part of town, which is almost too disgraceful to relate. An old man named Wilson was shamefully beaten by his wife, and another female named Conn, living with them. The old man, it appears, had raised some objections to the indications which he had discovered of "foul play" about the house, whereupon the two females swore they intended to "run that kind of a house, anyhow," and to settle the old man, fell upon and beat him with clubs in a furious manner. In the melee, his ankle was dislocated, and on yesterday morning he died from the effects, it is supposed, of the injuries received. He was about sixty years of age. The "wife of his bosom" and her friend, were examined before his Honor, the Mayor, on Tuesday; the former bound over in the sum of $500, to appear at the next term of court, and the latter discharged. It is probable they will now be re-arrested upon the charge of murder.

The Festival.
Much pleasure, we are told, is anticipated by the young people at the festival, to be held at the Masonic Hall next Thursday. The object of the entertainment is to raise funds for repairing the Presbyterian Church, at this place, which should not certainly deter any one from participating in the enjoyments of the occasion, as all are certainly interested in the welfare of our churches. The ladies, who will of course grace the occasion with their presence, having taken the matter in hand, we feel assured that nothing which can add to the attractions of the festive scene, will be omitted. In the way of eatables, in addition to the delicacies prepared by their fair hands, we are promised an abundance of nature's own luxuries, such as peaches, pears, grapes, and strawberries. Instrumental and vocal music will enliven the scene. Under these considerations, we are not surprised that any one should anticipate a good time. Those attending should be on hand at 7-12 P. M.

GRANT AND HIS CAMPAIGNS.
A MILITARY BIOGRAPHY,
By Henry Coppie,
Editor of the "United States Service Magazine."
1 Vol., 8vo., 500 Pages; ILLUSTRATED.

THIS is a book of which every American citizen will desire to possess a copy. The history of this great leader of the "Armies of the Union," has become the property of the nation he has done so much to save, and is imperishably incorporated in its annals.

The mere mention of Fort Donelson, Shiloh, Corinth, Iuka, Vicksburg, Chattanooga, The Wilderness, Spottsylvania, The North Anna, Cold Harbor, Petersburg, and Richmond, recalls to mind the past exertions of these successful warriors, while the surrender of Lee crowns all these arduous campaigns with faithfully earned victory.

During the heat and excitement of the contest, while history was so rapidly being made, no time could be spared to record these great deeds; but now the war being over and peace again restored to us, it is proper that such services should have a fitting record.

This work will be in every particular trustworthy and accurate—written by the Lieutenant General's life-long friend—from official documents and private records, put exclusively into his hands. It cannot fail to meet every requirement of the public expectation.

It is being prepared in the most thorough manner, and will be printed on fine paper and handsomely bound, and be illustrated with numerous portraits on steel, and by maps and plans of all the principle battles recorded.

To all who have served in any capacity, in these brilliant campaigns, the work will be invaluable, while to all who have had relatives or friends so engaged, it will be of absorbing interest and permanent value. It is a record of brilliant achievements in which every citizen will feel a life-long pride.

It will be sold exclusively by subscription, and cannot be had except through our duly authorized agents. Hence, those desiring a copy for their libraries should subscribe promptly when the opportunity is presented. It will not be sold in book stores, and cannot be had of us directly, but we will guarantee that all subscribers shall be well served by our agents.

Agents Wanted in every County throughout the West.
To whom exclusive territory will be given, and persons who have participated in these great campaigns, can find no more pleasing or profitable employment than to take such an agency.

TERMS UNIFORM AND LIBERAL.
Send for a circular and blank application, including $1.50 for an outfit, and mentioning several counties in the order of your choice. We give only two or three Townships to begin with, but hold in reserve an entire county or more for each agent, so that an extension of territory can be granted after a proper trial, if found desirable.
